Press Release

Belgravia Wines score a 5 Star Rating and 5 Glasses for its 2010 Chardonnay and 2010 Gewurztraminer.

Orange, New South Wales, Australia– 29 July 2011

Belgravia Wines is excited to announce that it has received a 5 star rating for the second year in a row and a 5 glass rating in the 2012 James Halliday Wine Companion for both its 2010 'The Apex' Orange Chardonnay and 2010 Orange Gewurztraminer.

Will Hattersley, the owner of Belgravia said "We are extremely proud to have received these ratings which are reserved for wines of the highest quality. The Apex Chardonnay received a rating of 96 and the Gewurztraminer a 94.

We are particularly pleased with the results for our flagship wine, the Apex Orange Chardonnay, one of only two chardonnays in the Orange district to have received 96 points, a score which is also the equal highest from all varieties in the region. The gewürztraminer is also a stand out and is described as having 'more varietal fragrance than any gewürztraminer tasted for years'. The review highlights the great match of this wine with Asian food and at a retail price of $22, we believe it represents outstanding value."

Belgravia wines are distributed in Australia by Bacchus Wine Merchant.
