The Arbitrageur's 12 - $295

Talk about taking advantage of a us here at the UB Wine Store. Our own wine trader Matt has structured a juicy combination of some amazing vino with our new Arbitrageur's dozen. Pay our price of $295 per doz and not $400.

2010 Bloodwood Riesling

Orange's benchmark Riesling from the pioneers of the region. The Germans have officially been put on notice.

2011 Swinging Bridge Pinot Gris

A Gris to put a smile on the most hardened Gris Grigio critic. Take a bow Tom Ward, we salute you, an exceptional variety.

2010 Belgravia 'Apex' Chardonnay

Don't just take our word for it, ask any ol' booze hound, say Halliday. And they'll tell you how good this is. 96/100!

2009 Meerea Park 'Hell Hole' Semillon

Hunters leading varietal and producer. A hell-hole it may be; but Lord this is biblical booze - there is a God!

2010 De Salis 'Wild Fume' Sauvignon Blanc

Loads of French oak loving has resulted in a Savvy that in simple terms is like necking a creamy, smoky passionfruit pavlova. Gimme gimme gimme.

2010 Spy Valley Gewurztraminer

Yeah they talk weird and think they can win the RWC but this tippie excuses all... well nearly.

2009 First Drop 'Mothers Ruin' Cabernet Sauvignon

Hailing from McLaren Vale comes a medium bodied, ever so slurpable Cabernet with a generous splash of funk.

2009 Pedestal Vineyard Cabernet/Merlot

This juicy lil' temptress screams 'Larry Cherbino! Take me tonight! I'm all yours!'. A masterful and utterly delightful Marg River red.

2008 Hoddles Creek Pinot Noir

Savoury, slinky with lashings of red berry flavour and framed with soft, girly-like tannins. Forget the glass, drink from the bottle.

2011 Word Of Mouth 'The Very Cool Red'

The urban cowboy Peter Gibson has dished up yet another stunner, this time in the form of Beaujolais. The red you need when you don't want red!

2008 Philip Shaw 'No 17' Merlot/Cabernet Franc/Cab Sauv

One of the best in Orange and keeps on winning and winning Awards. You just can't stop them. Outstanding vino this one.

2008 Tatchilla Shiraz

Doesn't get more authentic than this belter from McLaren Vale. A beauty and a beast in 1.
