

2006 BELGRAVIA MERLOT

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The cool wet spring of 2005 led into a long dry growing season - the perfect combination. Our traditional fermentation methods in open vats build texture and complexity into the wine. Will cellar well mid-term to 5 years and above.

Alcohol: 14%

AROMA AND PALATE

No lightweight this merlot, it packs mulberry and plum and savory undertones of anise into a well textured palate. Cool climate origins are revealed in the fine tannin structure.

DRINK WITH ...

Merlot's soft, round style is easier to drink than more tannic reds –meaning you can drink it with a variety of foods. Great with lasagne, game and mid-weight meats.

$29.95 per bottle or $150 for a six-pack
